departments for vetting, after which it has to be approved by the state cabinet. The UPPCL has promised to achieve key operational parameters, such as bringing down the ATASC losses to below 15% by 2024 and improving collection efficiencies. It also plans to install pre-paid smart metres for all consumers in the state, including all government connections. The UPPCL has also asked the government consure upfront and timely payment of subsidy and realisation of government dues for it to emerge out of the red.

FP24, the UPPCL has said that an additional subsidy support should be provided by the state against the interest and repayment liability towards the fresh loans borrowed under this financial package. Apart from this, an additional subsidy supportor 64,000 core from FP22 will be required if rural supply hours are to be increased from the current 18-hours supply to 24 hours.

UPPCL stated that the dues have burgeoned to ₹14,000 crore, ason March 2020, which are the highest in comparison to other states.
